Interest of judge in an official or representative capacity, or relationship of judge to one who is a party in an official or representative capacity, as disqualification, 10 A.L.R.2d 1307

A power to appoint and remove officers either as a judge or in another capacity is not an interest which will disqualify the judge from hearing cases regarding the acts of the appointees.<sup>1</sup> In this regard, a judge is not disqualified in an action against a public authority because he or she is one of a group of judges entitled to appoint some of the directors of the public authority.<sup>2</sup>
